CatManDo Inc. Wins Contract to Administer Insurer's Claims

Tampa, FL. November 2008 – CatManDo Inc. has been named as the exclusive Third Party Administrator (TPA) for Commercial Insurance Alliance (CIA) of Jacksonville, Fl. In their capacity as third party administrator, CatManDo will handle all claim adjusting services as well as back office operations to process policyholder claims. Centralizing claims handling with experienced adjusters helps carriers better control administrative costs and provides more responsive policyholder service, allowing the carrier to focus on underwriting policies. CIA specializes in small to medium commercial business policies and is positioning itself for future growth by partnering with CatManDo. “This unique line of business, representing a broad spectrum of the commercial sector, represents many challenges,” stated Deb Alvord, Claim Manager of CatManDo. “The diverse background of our liability adjusting team allows us to comfortably handle both first and third party claims for this distinctive line of business,” stated Ms. Alvord. CatManDo will administer claims throughout the State of Florida.

CatManDo Inc. is a full service independent insurance adjusting company, providing accurate, cost-effective and reliable property insurance claims adjusting and insurance appraisal services to insurance carriers doing business in the State of Florida. The firm was founded in 2000 with the express purpose of providing a higher quality of claims service than is currently available. Known as the “Carriers’ Adjusting Company,” CatManDo utilizes years of inside insurance carrier experience and maintains a broad network of highly trained and experienced adjusters.
